

THE FIRST ENGLISH LANGUAGE DAILY IN FREE KUWAIT
Established in 1977

Published Date: June 25, 2010

KGL named 'Best Logistics Company' by Arabian Business

The Arabian Business Magazine of the ITP Publishing Group awarded the KGL Group of Companies as the 'Best Logistics Company' during the annual Arabian Business Achievement Awards Kuwait 2010 held on Monday at the Arraya Ballroom at the Marriott Courtyard.

CEO of ITP Publishing Group Walid Akawi handed the award to KGL Holding Chairman Ali E. Dashti who was accompanied by some KGL key executives.

The awarding ceremony was attended by over 250 distinguished guests who were mostly CEOs and Senior Executives of various big companies in Kuwait.

The prestigious Arabian Business Achievement Awards, now, on its 10th year, is designed to recognize excellence among business firms and individuals across all business sectors in the Arab World. The jury composed of ITP top executives and editors of the Arabian Business has chosen KGL as the "Best Logistics Company" for the company was able to achieve considerable growth last year in its operational revenues despite the impact of the economic crisis on the global and regional markets in general and in the Kuwaiti front in particular. The jury lauded KGL's achievement that was unmatched by other logistic companies in the region. In addition to this, KGL looks forward to achieving more growth in its businesses this year as compared to last year.

KGL Holding Chairman Ali E. Dashti thanked the Arabian Business for the recognition conferred to the KGL Group. He outlined that KGL's greatest asset is its Human Capital for they are the ones that have contributed immensely to the company's successful operations.

He pointed out that the Board of Directors and the Executive Management are very keen in supporting and developing the company's Human Capital to deliver the highest standard of customer service and meet their clients' needs with utmost satisfaction.

Dashti added that KGL also focuses on projects and initiatives under its Corporate Citizenship that would benefit the communities it serves. He highlighted the importance of giving back to the society and supporting one another in the community to attain prosperity and sustainability.

Aside from KGL, 18 other business firms including outstanding business individuals were also awarded in the fields of technology, CSR, investment, industry, real estate, aviation, hospitality, telecommunication, banking, retail and environment.

<http://www.arabtimesonline.com/NewsDetails/tabid/96/smld/414/ArticleID/155875/reftab/73/Default.aspx>

Published Date: June 25, 2010

Arabian Business awards KGL 'Best Logistics Company'

KUWAIT: The Kuwait and Gulf Link (KGL) Group of Companies was named the 'Best Logistics Company' by the Arabian Business Magazine of the ITP Publishing Group at the annual Arabian Business Achievement Awards Kuwait 2010 held on Monday, June 21, 2010 at the Arraya Ballroom at the Marriott Courtyard. This was announced in a press release this week.

Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of ITP Publishing Group Walid Akawi handed the award to KGL Holding Chairman Ali E. Dashti who was accompanied by some KGL key executives.

Now, in its 10th year, the prestigious Arabian Business Achievement Awards is designed to recognize excellence among business firms and individuals across all business sectors in the Arab World. The jury composed of ITP top executives and editors of the Arabian Business has chosen KGL as the 'Best Logistics Company' as the company was able to achieve considerable growth last year in its operational revenues despite the impact of the economic crisis on the global and regional markets in general and in the Kuwaiti front in particular.

The jury lauded KGL's achievement that was unmatched by other logistic companies in the region. In addition to this, KGL looks forward to achieving more growth in its businesses this year as compared to last year.

KGL Holding Chairman Ali E. Dashti thanked Arabian Business for the recognition conferred to the KGL Group. He outlined that KGL's greatest asset is its human capital for they are the ones that have contributed immensely to the company's successful operations. He pointed out that the Board of Directors and the Executive Management are very keen in supporting and developing the company's human capital to deliver the highest standard of customer service and meet their clients' needs with utmost satisfaction.

KGL Holding Chairman Dr. Ali E. Dashti (right) receives the award for 'Best Logistics Company' from Arabian Business.

Dashti added that KGL also focuses on projects and initiatives under its 'Corporate Citizenship' that would benefit the communities it serves. He highlighted the importance of giving back to the society and supporting one another in the community to attain prosperity and sustainability. The awarding ceremony was attended by over 250 distinguished guests who were mostly CEOs and Senior Executives of various big companies in Kuwait.

Aside from KGL, 18 other business firms including outstanding business individuals were also awarded in the fields of technology, CSR, investment, industry, real estate, aviation, hospitality, telecommunication, banking, retail and environment.

KUWAIT TIMES

The first daily in the Arabian Gulf

Kuwait Times Sunday, June 27, 2010

KGL Holding Chairman Dr Ali E Dashti (right) receives the award.

Arabian Business awards KGL as 'Best Logistics Company'

KUWAIT: The KGL Group of Companies was awarded as the 'Best Logistics Company' by the Arabian Business Magazine of the ITP Publishing Group at the annual Arabian Business Achievement Awards Kuwait 2010 held on Monday, June 21, 2010 at the Arraya Ballroom at the Marriott Courtyard.

CEO of ITP Publishing Group Walid Akawi handed the award to KGL Holding Chairman Ali E Dashti who was accompanied by some KGL key executives. Now, on its 10th year, the prestigious Arabian Business Achievement Awards is designed to recognize excellence among business firms and individuals across all business sectors in the Arab World. The jury composed of ITP top executives and editors of the Arabian Business has chosen KGL as the "Best Logistics Company" for the company was able to achieve considerable growth last year in its operational revenues despite the impact of the economic crisis on the global and regional markets in general and in the Kuwaiti front in particular. The jury lauded KGL's achievement that was unmatched by other logistic companies in the region. In addition to this, KGL looks forward to achieving more growth in its businesses this year as compared to last year.

KGL Holding Chairman Ali E Dashti thanked the Arabian Business for the recognition conferred to the KGL Group. He outlined that KGL's greatest asset is its Human Capital for they are the ones that have contributed immensely to the company's successful operations. He pointed out that the Board of Directors and the Executive Management are very keen in supporting and developing the company's Human Capital to deliver the highest standard of customer service and meet their clients' needs with utmost satisfaction.

Dashti added that KGL also focuses on projects and initiatives under its Corporate Citizenship that would benefit the communities it serves. He highlighted the importance of giving back to the society and supporting one another in the community to attain prosperity and sustainability.

The awarding ceremony was attended by over 250 distinguished guests who were mostly CEOs and Senior Executives of various big companies in Kuwait.

Aside from KGL, 18 other business firms including outstanding business individuals were also awarded in the fields of technology, CSR, investment, industry, real estate, aviation, hospitality, telecommunication, banking, retail and environment.